Business established in:

1986 by Daron Schenk. After high school Daron attended college in Iowa, returning to the area to work in the oil and propane industry. Daron was employed at other local propane companies before opening Tri County Propane. He is experienced and knowledgeable about the propane industry. At Tri County Propane, you will still find the owner in the driver's seat.

Services and/or products offered: Owned and operated out of Irene, SD, we offer residential, commercial, and agricultural propane delivery. We are dedicated to meet the needs of our customers and offer scheduled deliveries, contract rates, a budget plan, and a "Keep Full" program. We are also very safety oriented and want to keep you updated on any information you may need involving dedication and prevention of leaks. We also offer leak and safety checks.

Covid Restrictions: None. We have remained open to meet the needs of our customers.

Why Shop Local

By keeping your money where your heart lives you are supporting an economy of friends and neighbors and helping to build up the local community. Locally owned businesses donate more per sales dollars to local nonprofits, events/activities, and teams than national chains. At Tri County Propane, we strive to employ locally, and the business is owned and operated by your friends and neighbors who live in this community and are invested in our community's future.
